

ARABIC STUDIES Major Advising Form

(revised 4/2012)

Student: _____ Class: _____

Other Major? _____ Advisor: _____

Have your advisor or the chair sign next to each course in section B to indicate it satisfies credit for the major. This worksheet is intended to help you and the program keep track of your progress in the major; be sure to consult the course catalog for full information about major requirements.

Double majors: You may not count any of the courses below toward the total number of courses required in your other major.

---

A. Required Language Courses

If you place out of any of these 4 required language courses, you must substitute other elective courses for them and get approval for those courses.

4 courses	Semester
1. ARAB 101-102	_____
2. ARAB 201 and ARAB 202	_____

---

B. Five Elective Courses

2 Courses in Language and the Arts (Div I)	Semester / Approved by
1. _____	_____
2. _____	_____

2 Courses in politics, religion, economics, and history (Div II)	Semester / Approved by
3. _____	_____
4. _____	_____

1 Additional elective in any area	Semester / Approved by
5.* _____	_____

**The fifth elective is not required for students writing a thesis in Arabic Studies.*

---

C. Upper-Level Course Requirement

1. At least two courses listed under A or B above must be at the 300 level or above. Which courses will you use to satisfy this requirement? [1] _____ [2] _____

---

Up to four courses from approved study abroad programs may be used to satisfy the requirements above. The chair of the program must approve these courses.

---

Students wishing to write a thesis in Arabic Studies should consult the course catalog for requirements, which include submitting a thesis proposal by spring of the junior year. The two thesis courses (492-93) are taken fall and spring of senior year, and do not count toward the requirements above.